

Polly At Waveland

Summer is here bringing with it what appeared to be the largest group of weekenders to date—I realize that Spring doesn't officially end for some two weeks but as far as Waveland and the weatherman are concerned, it's here to stay. The beaches were literally jammed with swimmers, sunbathers, and sand castle architects—water skiers and boaters were skimming over the waves and the seawall was lined with fishermen and crabbers. We observed that bathing suits are a bit more modest this season, as a matter of fact, the men seem to be more in the mode of the day, but hats, bigger, bigger, and more attractive than ever and even the men seem to favor jackets over bermudas.

Travel Report

Gertrude "Saver" got around quite a bit last week—on Tuesday she and Larry, went to the day in New Orleans enjoying dinner in the city—Wednesday she, Laura Hunter, Barb Bordages and Rose Rich and visited the Jeff Davis Memorial Shrine, lunched at the Sun and Sand and topped off the day with a meal at the Green Inn.

The Joseph Macmurtreys, the children, sisters-in-law, Thelma Talley and Mrs. Talley's daughter-in-law and five children celebrated Thelma's birthday, May 26, with a fishing trip on the Jordan River. They found a cool, shady spot and cut her birthday cake and ate ice cream.

Hilda and Dan Rivers returned from their Davers Beach, La., vacation, reporting a wonderful time—they have a clipping from a Daytona Beach paper with Dan pictured holding a mackerel about 10 feet long in the surf—sort of a waterproof test which most disturbingly found a sunnier looking beach—local police and the sheriff were summoned, they in turn contacted a local newspaper—it turned out to be a Navy plane—the container was given to Dan as a souvenir.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Reissner and son, Roy, are now making their home on Market St.—the Reissners are the parents of Mrs. Reissner's parents. Incidentally Reissner and Reissner's home now looks like a picture of a house and garden magazine story—their remodeled and selected lovely new furniture.

Key to the City

Your reporter is now the proud owner of a shiny gold key to the Crescent City—a gift from his boss, Mayor Leche, on the occasion of our very good friend, Freddie Gersmer, who has started school at Mrs. Gersmer's Villa, their lovely home in a lovely Harbor. The grandchildren, Lionel, Jr., and little David will spend the vacation months with the Gersmers—that Mr. Freddie says that either he'll have to borrow little Melanie's infant or lend Janice to Carmel and J. L. as the two girls are such devoted companions.

Carmel was among the missing Sunday as she was in the city to attend the ordination of long-time family friend, Rev. Louis F. LeBourgeois. The ceremonies started at 9 a.m. at St. Louis Cathedral. Father LeBourgeois' picture graced the front page of the Sunday paper with a story relating the fact that his 98-year old grandmother passed away just a few hours before the ordination.

We must toss a bouquet to our publisher, editor and boss, The Echo received honorable mention in the editorial page judging at the Mississippi Press Assn. convention last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The award may be placed next to last year's plaque which was awarded for excellent use of photography in news stories.

Bon Voyage to former neighbors, the Meadows Lane John Williams—sons—they moved to their new home on Alken Road over the weekend—however the livestock will remain for a while anyway—I'm kind of glad—the little black goat is most friendly.

The Listers, Jeanne and Fred, weekenders here and report receiving a card from Louise and Joe Wymer—they're thoroughly enjoying their vacation.

Barbecues were quite popular Sunday—the Jerry Lipscombs entertained Ruth and Matt Ballant, Ann and Mickey at their Jeff Davis home and among Carmen and Dan Kirschenheuter's guests the same day were Carmen's niece and brand new husband, the Charles Lortos, Gerri and Sam Blanchard and Helen and Will Bordages.

Mrs. Annie Ballant and son Norman weekenders with son Matt and wife Ruth—they also attended the feast at Lipscombs. Dropping in on Kate and Roy Saux at PCL Golf Club Sunday were Kate's brother Herb and wife Tee, of the Crescent City.

Rae and Ras Rasmussen visited Mrs. Katy Lee Hare in a New Orleans hospital last week and report that she is improving slowly, but surely. Mrs. Beada Vale and two children will spend two months (June and July) as guests of the Rasmussens and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tonkin. . . Rae is walking on air—after months of struggle with a brand new yard for long minus even a sprig of grass she won the horticulture ribbon at the Lakeshore Garden Club May garden tour and buffet which was graciously hosted by Rose Richmond.

Frances Brenstle Chapman spent Monday visiting her mother, Mrs. W. C. Frierson and sister, Mrs. (Mrs. Toby) Piazza. Frances' pretty face may be viewed frequently on Channel 6 TV as she extolls the merits of a cosmetic line.

Merle Steffel informs us that work on the Kln Road didn't begin any too soon—while on this thoroughfare last week not only was her diamond shaken loose from its setting—she also found her watch crystal on the floor mat of the car. . . at present about the only ones who'll benefit from the condition of said road are the local dentists, if any of their patients have loose fillings.

Complaint

Numerous readers have informed us that a local SPK A is becoming a necessity—the cruel practice of dumping female puppies (and mongrel males, too) has begun once more—Jackson Ridge is again infested with these unfortunate—if you don't want a dog, either advertise—there's usually some animal lover who's a sucker for small things—or have a vet mercifully put it to sleep. Turning puppies or cats or any animal out to starve is just plain brutal.

Meat balls and spaghetti happen to be one of our favorite dishes and lots of people cook a delicious pot of corn, but the very best I've ever eaten, was whipped up by Bea Georgi last Thursday night—must confess the diet was completely forgotten while this delicacy was being devoured.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Hayes, former Waveland Ave. residents now living on DeMontluzin in the Bay, dropped in on some of their Waveland friends Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jenkins of Lake Village, Ark., arrive Monday to spend a week with the Sam Jenkins, daughter Ann Langley and sons, Gil and Roland.

Sick Notes

Ray Rasmussen isn't getting around too well these days—she suffered a fractured foot in a truck accident in her kitchen last week—hope it mends rapidly—she well wishes also go to Carmel Piazza and Rene Strong both of whom have wrap throats; to

AT DAVELAND SCHOOL - Mrs. Paul Ladner, Mrs. Nola Bourgeois and Mrs. Jack Norris supervise the summer at Waveland Baptist church's vacation bible school. More than 100 children from babies to 15-year-olds are currently attending the two-week session which opened Monday.

Congratulations to Rev. Dale Lyons of Lakeshore, Clermont and Waveland Methodist Churches, on the occasion of his graduation from Mississippi Southern College Sunday.

Mrs. Esther Peridas has returned home after major surgery and a five-week stay in Gulfport Memorial Hospital. . . a speedy recovery to Rev. J. Bonnacore who suffered another heart attack a few weeks ago. He is improving and able to walk around his room. . . Mrs. E. K. Rolland wrote in my note book: My eight grandchildren are visiting me. Joy, Glenn, Elizabeth and Chris Rolland, Chuck, Mike, Patty and Ricky Rolland, all of New Orleans.

Sympathy is extended to members of the Nall family on the occasion of the death of Mrs. Inez Nall, wife of Henry Nall of Clermont, Tuesday last at Baptist Hospital in New Orleans.

The large carport and wrought iron portico addition to the Alvin Ladner home lends the place quite an air. . . Dee and La Vigne Hynes were over this week working in their garden; they have a pleasing hobby of remembering their friends on every occasion with very appropriate cards.

The Tom Hooley family is coming over more frequently. . . its good to see them. . . the Bousquet family on loan also. . . The large porch on the Kergosien house, Beach and Bordages is large enough to accommodate the whole clan, of whom there are many.

Irene Moran, whose hobby is designing, making and collecting dolls, also made the brand used in registering their live stock. Ancestral Acres boasts one of the finest live oaks around here. . . it should be registered as one of Mississippi's finest.

A Gervais was acclamation as a cook Saturday night by the crowd who ate Fellowship Hall completely out of meat balls and spaghetti. Mrs. Gervais who also contributed so much in every way gave great credit to the helpfulness of the ladies in the kitchen and dining hall, without whose cooperation the affair might not have been so successful.

Birthday cake, and candles to . . . Rose Richmond's aunt Olivia Weill on June 11th, on May 16; Bruce Mueller, June 16; and Mrs. J. Bonnacore on June 26—congratulations also to Ed Orrie whose election to the school board took place Saturday last.

Louise Becker, whose ceramic hobby turned into business in New Orleans, expects to spend more time here now with son Hal and his wife Pat and daughter Lou with her most of the time—Mr. and Mrs. L. Richmond returned home after a few days visit with Mrs. A. Weill in New Orleans.

A long distance call to room 216 Memorial Hospital in Gulfport brought J. P. Rousseau to the phone with good news about wife Mary's eye surgery. She is getting along fine and able to walk out in the hall for a short period at times. Best wishes for a speedy recovery, Mary.

On the hobby topic, congratulations (late, naturally) to Lorraine and George Fanning—their seventh child, little Mary Frances arrived the day after Easter, which explains why we haven't seen the Fannings—after six blue eyed, very fair Fannings, Mary Frances was to say the least, a bit of a surprise—she's the only one with brown eyes, black hair and olive complexion like mamma.

Prize Catches

Herman (Mac) McCall accompanied by brother-in-law and sister, the Albert Mazellias caught an icebox full of trout at Half Moon last week—Little eight-year-old Terry Mazellias showed all of his elders by catching the most fish.

Julio and Clarence Duvettech enjoyed the weekend in Waveland as usual and report that the Armand Serpas family will arrive for the summer next week—just as soon as school is out.

Louise and Joe Wymer sent a lovely card from the big city of New York—they had a ball but were happy to return home last Thursday. The only thing that marred the trip was car trouble.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Groups of people pausing to pick bouquets of black-eyed susans more commonly known locally as railroad daisies—cars, cars and more cars—large, middle sized and small foreign models in all colors and shapes lining Coleman Ave. graceful minnows trees with soft pink powder puff blossoms reaching heavenward—the sounds of Sunday afternoon—cars idling by, horsehoes clanking, children laughing and the tantalizing scent of hickory smoke wafted from a nearby barbecue. . .

Congratulations to Ed. P. Orrie, Gulfview School's newly elected school board member. Mr. and Mrs. Jessie LaFontaine, Jr., of New Orleans and their two children were Saturday guests of Ms. father.

Mrs. Julia Hase, county home resident, made the trip down here Saturday to vote and exchange greetings with old friends. Mrs. Joseph Crook received a bad cut on her hand last Tuesday when she lost her balance and fell out our back door. She was treated at Hancock General and given tetanus serum. With all this precaution an infection set in and her visit was spent going back and forth to the doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Moran took last Friday off from their shop and made a quick trip to Houma, La., to visit Mrs. Moran's sister, Mrs. Elda Ellenor, who is ill in Terrebonne General Hospital. On the way home they stopped off in Golden Meadow, La., to see mama Chavez, then on to Cutoff, La., to pick up daughter Mrs. Harold Barrios and children.

Gordon Garcia has been transferred to Theodore, Ala. His place here was taken by Vic Green who was replaced by Harry Ming. All are L & N employees and this moving around is called bumping.

Aunt Hazel Yarbrough has returned to her Lakeshore home after a long visit with Miss Rita Cus.

Lots of birthdays among the small fry. Ricky Green was three on May 29 and was treated to a day at Audubon Park by his parents Floyd and Billie Green. Little brother Rand was June 3 and he enjoyed cake and trimmings at home.

Little Henry Paul Monti, III, nephew of Mrs. Victor Green, celebrated his first birthday April 27 in his home on State Street. Doctors reports are more favorable each time, and before too long little Henry will be able to get along without the tracheotomy tube he has had in his throat since he was three weeks old.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Garcia of Violet, La., were Saturday guests of Miss Lela Garcia and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Garcia. Plans for St. John's Church Fair are almost completed, according to Page 5.

Good, If It Works

At their regular scheduled meetings this week the governing councils of Bay St. Louis and Waveland considered the advisability of officially recommending redistricting Hancock County. The Echo, which has previously expressed its view that redistricting is needed, through its editor formally brought the question before these official bodies.

While as individuals each member of the two governments expressed their concurrence that a change in beat distribution is needed in order to give the two towns a more equitable representation, as the official representatives of their communities both groups felt it was preferable to first talk the matter over with the county board of supervisors.

While Beat 5, should a big majority of the eligible voters agree, can redistrict as they see fit, we think the Bay St. Louis commission council and the Waveland town council were correct in their decision to discuss the matter first with the board of supervisors. It is true that by proceeding in that way the two municipalities may get nowhere or any get agreement on beat boundaries that are still not truly fair. It is also true that cooperation between our official bodies benefits all. In addition, should the board of supervisors agree UNANIMOUSLY on some more equitable division of authority in the county, then the headaches and animosities would not occur that would result if Beat 5 people tried to dictate beat boundaries through an election.

After all, half a pie is better than none, though it would be well to remember that the voters in Beat 5, if a big majority of them agree, can district the county as they see fit.

Got To Try Harder

This editor is naturally pleased that the Sea Coast Echo received the Mississippi Press Assn.'s 1961 honorable mention award for its editorial page. Also, we naturally regret we were not considered the best in that field but are confident the judges were correct in their decision. In fact, we are skeptical that this page of the Echo deserves what amounts to fourth place among the many excellent Mississippi weekly newspapers.

However, as we wrote a year ago when the Echo received the top award among all Mississippi papers, weekly and daily, for excellence in news use of locally taken pictures, a category which was not contested this year, we still want to be the best paper in the association. In our opinion no backs are to be patted unless for "general excellence." We still aim for first place in that non-limited category.

Who's Who

As of the time this is written (noon Wednesday) no absolute decision concerning parking meters, in or out, has been made by the Commission Council of Bay St. Louis. To us it seems that no matter what council finally decides they will displease some people, but that is true about any decision made on a controversial issue.

We also think that the parking meters do more good for the merchants on Main Street and Beach Boulevard than they do harm. The majority of the merchants involved have openly expressed themselves to the contrary, and as businesses directly affected, their views deserve more than routine consideration.

Because the public streets belong to the public, we have contended, and still do, the commission council's decision should be based on what council thinks is best for the public, including what the public as a major factor in arriving at the decision. So far the public has not been very vocal to the council on this question.

and notwithstanding this paper's appeal only a small number have written us letters dealing with this problem. Those of the general public who have taken the effort to make their views known in this way have been un-animously for retaining the meters, but they are few in number.

If commission council feels that the meters are best for our city and that their constituents prefer meters, we think they should vote for retention of the meters. If the general public is apathetic about meters we believe council is justified in following the recommendation of the majority of the affected businesses and therefore removing the meters at the first opportunity.

Considerations that we think are NOT of major importance, although they are involved, include the city's revenue from the meters (about $2,000 a year now and double that in less than three years), the approximately $1,900 financial property interest of the city it would lose if the meters are taken out now and the fact that a particular merchant had almost eight per cent less business during the last six months of 1960 than he had during the same period in 1959 when no meters had been installed.

The Echo still contends that the benefit to the owners of our streets, the general public, is the basic criterion on which council's decision should be based.

Congratulations

Hancock County now has a complete board of education. Mr. Ed P. Ortte received close to 60 per cent of the eligible voters' endorsement last Saturday notwithstanding formidable and able opposition by Mr. John Bordages and Mr. Leonard Ladner. Mr. Ortte is due congratulations for the confidence expressed in him by his neighbors.

At his first meeting on Monday as a member of the board of education, Mr. Ortte's statements showed concern over certain practices in making purchases. We feel Mr. Ortte was right and hope he will continue to use a "hawk's eye" on the spending of any public money. By doing so he will indicate that the voters in the Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore boxes were correct in expressing their confidence in him.

Letters to The Editor

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

Is there such a thing as an ordinance or law against running stop signs in Bay St. Louis. In my observation in various parts of the City I have yet to see any motorist come to a stop, even the law falls to stop.

There has just been installed a new stop sign at the intersection of Central (RR) Ave. and Washington, and in the short time of 15 minutes there were 26 cars and trucks passed there and not one came to a stop. And that is a dangerous corner as cars come around at the rate of 25 and 30 miles per hour.

Also the noise that some of the cars make that are running around town with cutouts on their mufflers and some without mufflers. Can nothing be done to eliminate this noise?

T.A.H. Bay St. Louis.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
I am heartily in favor of the parking meters in the Bay business district.

By the way, I noted with much interest the approaching chlorination of the Bay St. Louis water supply. I believe it's the best thing that's happened in the Bay in a long time.

VERNON C. PARKER, New Orleans.

In response to your request in the last two issues of The Echo concerning the opinion of the public as to the removal of parking meters, I am appalled to think that the City Council is contemplating such a step backwards.

If your paper can use its influence to persuade the merchants that theirs is a very short-sighted move, you will have benefited the community enormously.

Sincerely,
MRS. ERNEST C. SAMUEL
(EDITOR'S NOTE: For the benefit of our readers and still campaigning we are printing herewith a ballot form so others can tell our commission council their view. We agree with Mrs. Samuel, maybe you don't.)

A wedding of interest in this area was performed last Sunday afternoon at Napoleon Baptist Church when Miss Birdie Dawsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Dawsey, became the bride of James Whitfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Felton Whitfield of Picayune. Rev. Wayne Stockstill, pastor of the church, officiated, and Mrs. Wayne Stockstill sang. Following the wedding, the reception was held at the Logtown School gym with about 100 guests present.

The public is invited to attend the revival being held through Sunday at Cortina Baptist Church on Rt. 43 south of Santa Rosa. Rev. Many of those present had not been back home in many years, and old friends were visiting with each other for the first time in ages. Everyone had a good time seeing old friends, and meeting the children and grandchildren of their former schoolmates.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lomar Otis over the weekend were their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Fountain, Jr., and her children, Bettye and Gary, of McComb. Miss Alice Wasson of New Orleans spent the weekend in the Otis home, and others visiting Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Weston and family of Jackson, and Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Moran's Girls Go On Scoring Spree

In a close, exciting contest Sunday night Moran's came from behind to win the opener 18-12 in the second night of competition in the Women's Softball League at City Park. Last year's champs, Don's Service Station, took the nightcap from Our Lady of the Gulf 9-6.

In opening night play last Thursday Our Lady of the Gulf beat Jerome's 6-5 in the first game of the season while Don's defeated the Bay Independents 11-9 in the nightcap.

Play resumes tonight with Moran taking on Our Lady of the Gulf and Jerome meeting Bay Independents. Sunday night it is Bay Independents vs. Moran and Don's vs. Jerome.

In Sunday's Moran vs. Jerome game Jerome was ahead 12-11 in the sixth inning when Moran's big guns began finding the target.

Miss Frye Wins In Women's Golf

oulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE MICHELHORN

Half Moon and Grassy Island took on the appearance of a power plant last weekend and almost everyone went home with a fish. Half Moon has been a hot spot for more than a week and the fishing camps along Bayou Caddy as well as LaFrance's have been booming business. They all had live bait but sold out several times.

Conditions have been ideal for all kinds of fishing and crabbing—bright sunny days not too hot or muggy and cool in the mornings. We have always been a five o'clock in the morning fisherman and we believe that to be the best time of day in summertime, before the sun is heated up by the sun but a lot of good catches are made in the change of tide, just after the water starts running out.

Business Is Good

One fishing camp operator on Bayou Caddy, Bill Pison, reports he was taxed to capacity and put in some long hours but was glad to be out of his long months of inactivity. Man, this sure is a seasonal business, Bill said.

Some of the lucky anglers going out of Bill's camp were A. G. Thompson with Robert Genin, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Genin, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Price, Jr. Hundreds of other anglers were over to take advantage of the good fishing.

Henry Lang says this is an off year for him. Everyone seems to be catching soft shell crabs but him but he says he doesn't count on catching soft shell crabs.

We hear that several old timers have been stocking up on trout. Henry Farrelly, Charlie Lozano, Col. Pilet, etc. Would like to hear about their catches sometime.

Hard crabs are still biting but perhaps not as good as they were last week. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Baxter have been getting their share. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blazee.

Ray Kidd was out at the Keys last week and did all right but not as good as usual.

High Seas Operation

Bernie Piazza is fiberglassing his boat and will make his first trip of the year soon. He says he is going on the high seas, about 10 miles, wherever that might be. Anyhow we hope he makes it back.

Which reminds us if Bernie and Ray would get a lot of skiffs, for two of their kids in each boat and haul them out to Half Moon they would probably wind up with more fish than Willie Strong and Slim Lader put together.

Ted Rebol and Wayne Alliston made a killing up the Jordan Tuesday afternoon getting the limit of green trout averaging about two pounds, the smaller ones being returned to the water. Ted, who is strictly a purist fly fisherman, tied up with a five-pound sheephead Monday which is bound to be some kind of record—sheephead being about the bottom of bottom feeders. Ted said he salvaged his popping bug, sans paint.

Scoops Are At It

The Sea Coast Echo Scoops, last year's Little League city baseball champs, are on their way again with ace twirler Danny Henry on the mound winning their first game Tuesday night. Last year they had to fight their way up from the bottom of the heap but this year the lads look like the hottest team in these parts. Youth Center finished in top slot last year but have been weakened this year losing several of their players to the newly-formed American Legion team.

Shrimp Season Reopens

At Monday night's meeting of the Mississippi Marine Conservation in Biloxi it was voted to open the shrimp season at sunrise, June 15, Attorney Dan M. Russell, Jr., informs us. The date coincides with the Alabama opening date. The season was closed a few weeks ago when small brown shrimp started showing up—they were too small to meet the legal minimum size limit. The commission also accepted a bid of $2.375 from the Breath Boat and Motors in Bay St. Louis for a 20-foot boat with inboard motor to be used as a patrol boat.

We also noted that the Senate Appropriations Committee in Washington has announced in favor of a proposal by Sen. John C. Stennis that $175,000 be allotted for research into the shrimp industry on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

An office discussion about how to cook chitlings resulted in a special memo that says Jessie LaFarge, an old Negro woman who is one of the finest cooks "I have run up against besides the Argus Jesses."

"Jess tells me chitlings come prepared for cooking except like other meats of this type they must be washed. She claims the best way is to boil them in water seasoned with salt, pepper, an onion, celery stalk and bit of parsley. Cool and serve with French dressing although she says oil and plain vinegar is her favorite."

Next week we are promised a recipe to prepare them Creole style.

George Kramer, chief engineer on the SS del Nor out of New Orleans and brother Jack of McDonald and Sons sporting goods department, stashed away a boatload of specks Sunday morning at Half Moon. Also making the trip were Julian Lorenzo and young Johnny Kramer.

YOUNG SLUGGER - Chuck Wagner missed this one but came through with a sacrifice on the next pitch to score the first official run of the season Tuesday night at City Ball Park for last year's city champs, the Sea Coast Echo Scoops.

Scoops Start Fast

Picking up where they left off last year the Sea Coast Echo Scoops, last year's Little League city baseball champs, blasted Al Sunny's lads 12-2 Tuesday night at City Park.

Although getting into trouble on a few occasions, ace pitcher Danny Henry showed his climbing form and with the support of a terrific infield pitched himself out of every hole.

The Scoops started the fireworks in the first inning scoring four runs to salt the game away when Chip Henry and Roy Chidiche walked, Chuck Wagner was hit by a pitched ball, and a couple of two-baggers by Paul Pursley and Larry Schultz.

Sunny threatened in their half of the first when Steve Kidd got a clean single over second base and Freeman slammed a line drive in the same spot but second baseman Wagner made a leaping one-handed catch and stepped on second base for a double play.

In another game Tuesday the Junior Sheriffs and 7-Up battled to a 6-6 deadlock, the game being called at the end of the fifth. Officials said that because of shifting of players and for other technical reasons the only game to go into the record books so far this year is the Echo-Sunny game. A schedule has not yet been announced.

Cue Oil Tops Liquid League

Members of the Liquid League played their final series of the season last week at Bay Bowling Center, Cue Oil Co., winding up on top of the heap followed by 7-Up and the Black Sheep.

John Lohmann was awarded the trophy for most improved player, Donald Strong for highest individual game with 231, Henry Schmidt, high individual series with 465; Monroe (Buck) Kimball, high average with 162; Frostop, high team single game 844, and 7-Up, high team three-game series 2,399.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Coward of New Orleans entertained Sunday at a picnic at their summer home near Bayou Phillip.

In PCI Golf Play

Waldrop Wins Title

Jim Waldrop of Outpost defeated J. W. Waggoner of Pass Christian to win the seventh annual club championship at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club last weekend.

Long-hitting Waldrop, stepfather of Mary Mills who last month won the women's state title for the eighth straight year, held a four-hole advantage over Waggoner at the end of the first 18 holes Saturday when the Pass player had trouble getting his puts down.

Waldrop retained his advantage after 27 holes and went five up at the 28th. Waggoner managed to get only one hole back and was closed out 4 and 3. The new champion defeated Dick Merritt, Kenny Ladner Marks

9th Year at Party

Kenneth Robert Ladner celebrated his ninth birthday Friday with a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Ladner, on Nicholson Avenue. Neighborhood playmates shared the occasion with him.

Devil's and angel's food cake and ice cream were served with model airplanes as prizes in various games.

five-time winner of the event, in the semi-finals. Waggoner is the only other player ever to win the club title.

In the championship consolation Dr. John Griffin beat Dick Hammett, 4 and 3; John Genin ousted Bill Kellogg 3 and 2 for the first flight title, the consolation going to Ed Alker who downed Pete Merritt 2 and 1; Herb Wise captured the second flight 4 and 3 from Dick Shadoin, Sidney Prague taking the consolation by default, and Howard Adams topped Dr. George Byrne 3 and 1 for the third flight. Wendel Watson defeated Bill Fennell 1 up for that consolation award.

Prizes in both the men's and women's divisions were presented Sunday evening by E. W. Holmes, Jr., tournament chairman, assisted by Mrs. John Griffin, women's golf chairman.

The remainder of the women's matches were completed last week. Mrs. John David defeated Miss Catherine Purchner 1 up at the 19th for the championship consolation; Mrs. Griffin won 2 and 1 over Mrs. Walter Gex, Jr., in the first flight consolation, and Mrs. John Ellis won the third flight consolation medal play.
